

Rana Ahmed Ghanim

Human Rights Activist

Experience: human rights, women rights, development and gender issues, peace building

Languages:

Arabic: native language

English: good

Bio: Rana Ghanem, Yemeni human rights and political activist, member of SDF board in Yemen, as researcher and trainer in her field of experience.

She has several participations and contributions in the field of housing and land rights with SDF, the last was, preparing the study on the violations of land grabbing in Yemen.

For more than 5 years she participated in a project in Yemen in cooperation and funded with the US Agency for International Development. Since 2002 she worked as executive and programme officer for SDF in implement its project with several National CSOs in Yemen.

She is a trainer for the Higher Institute for Teachers Training.

In 2018, She joint the governmental delegation in the yemeni peace talks, in Geneva and Stockholm.

In 2016, she joint the consultancy team of the governmental delegation in the Yemeni peace talks that was held Kuwait.

In 2013, Rana was a Vice-president of the State Building Group in the process of the National Dealouge Conference. now she is a member of the National Committee for monitor the implementation of the outcomes of the National Dealouge Conference.

For communication with Ms. Rana, email: ranaghanem71@gmail.com